POLICY ON ESTABLISHING BOND

IT IS THE POLICY of the Fifth Judicial Circuit that any judge who establishes bond in any particular case should specify whether or not it is a cash bond. If it is a cash bond, then cash and cash only would be received and held by the Clerk of Courts.

If it is a personal recognizance bond or a surety bond, the judge should indicate specifically that it is the same and then all personnel would be authorized to follow that directive.

Dated this 10th day of September, 2003.

BY THE COURT:

Jack R. Von Wald, Presiding Judge
