FOURTH CIRCUIT POLICY #06-06

Debtor Exam Hearings

It is the policy of the Fourth Judicial Circuit that the attendance of a judge or court reporter at debtor exam hearings is no longer required. A room and telephone will be available so the attorney can call in at the scheduled date and time to visit with the debtor. Schedulers/clerks will be responsible for directing the debtor to the appropriate room and transferring the phone call from the law firm to the debtor.

The debtor will not be ordered to bring financial information to the hearing unless the attorney examiner plans to personally appear.

Dated this 9th day of January, 2006.

Warren G. Johnson
Presiding Judge
Fourth Judicial Circuit
