Civil Scheduling and Practice

6. What is the preferred method for setting a civil motions hearing, other than in open court?

Attorney conference call with Court Administration and all attorneys must agree to date

A motion must be on file before a hearing can be scheduled on the motion.

7. Do you want courtesy copies of the main statutes or cases relied upon in briefs or motions?

No

8. Who should be contacted to request/schedule a telephonic appearance?

Court via email

9. Do you require a motion or want some form of notice if the parties have stipulated to an extension of a deadline in a scheduling order?

No

10. Should stipulations between counsel on evidentiary issues and/or legal issues be submitted to you in writing?

Yes

11. What is the preferred method for scheduling a civil jury trial?

File a motion for scheduling and set for a motions hearing

Trial dates can only be scheduled during a pre-trial conference with the Court and attorneys present. The parties should be prepared to assure the Court that discovery is complete or near completion.

12. Do you require pretrial conferences and what agenda do you have for pretrial conferences?

No

Counsel should be prepared to update the Court of the status of the case and discovery. At the pretrial conference deadlines will be set for jury instructions, motions in limine, witness and exhibit lists. Counsel shall also be prepared to inform the Court whether any substantive motions will be filed that would require a separate hearing.

13. Do you have a standard pretrial order?

Yes (if so, please email to brenda.anderson@ujs.state.sd.us)

14. Do you have any requirements for court trials that are different from your jury trial expectations?

Yes

Parties should contact the Court for permission to schedule a court trial on a civil matter. The parties may also be required to submit pre-trial briefs depending upon the nature of the case. If you want to schedule a court trial, please begin that process by emailing the Court directly.

15. How do you conduct voir dire?

Voir Dire is conducted using the strike down method with the jury seated in the galley of the courtroom.

16. Do you require a pretrial brief?

No

If the matter is scheduled for a jury trial, a pretrial brief is not required. If the matter is set for a court trial, please follow the steps outlined above.

17. Do you require pretrial findings of fact and conclusions of law in a court trial?

No

Unless specifically requested prior to trial.

18. Is there anything else you would like attorneys to know about how you conduct civil matters?

When emailing copies of briefs to the Court, please include a copy of your brief in Word format. Please ensure that you send a hard copy of all briefs and supporting documents via US Mail as well.

Criminal Scheduling and Practice

19. What is the preferred method for setting a criminal motions hearing, other than in open court?

Attorney conference call with Court Administration and all attorneys must agree to date

20. What is the preferred method for seeking a reset of a routine criminal court appearance?

Email Court directly with cc: to other attorneys of record

21. When a suppression motion is filed, do you require or request a pre-evidentiary brief to lay out the issues to be argued?

Yes

22. Do you have any standard sentences or sentencing policies of which attorneys should be aware?

No

23. If answer to previous question is yes, please provide examples. (e.g., no suspended imps in certain situations, fine paid in full on day of sentencing, etc)

Yes

27. Do you mind if lawyers check email, etc while waiting in the gallery for their case to be called?

No

28. Is there anything else you would like attorneys to know about your preferred courtroom protocol?

If you resolve a case prior to a scheduled hearing, please make sure that Court Administration is notified of the cancelation. Notify the Court directly if a hearing is canceled within 48 hours of the scheduled hearing.

Domestic Cases

29. Are there any special issues that arise in your courtroom in domestic cases that you would like the Bar to be aware of?

Please contact the Court via email prior to setting a full-day or multiple-day trial on the calendar in a divorce or custody matter. The Court requires that the parties have completed or have neared completion of discovery prior to setting days on the calendar. A hearing may not be scheduled if a motion has not been filed. Please file your motion and then call Court Administration to schedule the hearing with the other party. Please adhere to the requirements of the pretrial order. If there is a reason you cannot comply, please contact the Court via email prior to the scheduled hearing or trial.
