

STATEMENT OF LEGAL ISSUE

WHETHER DEFENDANT'S PAROLE AGENT NEEDED
REASONABLE SUSPICION TO REQUEST THAT DEFENDANT SUBMIT TO A UA AND IF SO WHETHER HE HAD REASONABLE SUSPICION?

The trial court granted Defendant's Motion to Suppress concluding that Defendant's parole officer must have reasonable suspicion to request Defendant to submit to a UA and that there was no reasonable suspicion present in this situation.