IN CIRCUIT COURT

COUNTY OF _____

_____ JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

_____ Plaintiff v. _____ Defendant	Case No.:_____ SUMMONS (WITH CHILDREN)

TO THE ABOVE-NAMED DEFENDANT:

YOU ARE HEREBY SUMMONED and required to answer the Complaint with Minor Children, a copy of which is hereby served upon you, and to serve the Plaintiff with a copy of your Answer or other proper response, within thirty days from the date of the service of the Summons upon you, not counting the day of service.

IF YOU FAIL TO DO SO, judgment by default may be taken against you for the relief demanded in the Complaint sixty days from the date of the service of this Summons and Complaint with Minor Children, not counting the day of service.

NOTICE

South Dakota law provides that upon the filing and service of the Summons and Complaint with Minor Children on the Defendant, a Temporary Restraining Order shall be in effect against both parties until the final decree is entered, the Complaint with Minor Children is dismissed or until further order of the Court. Either party may apply to the Court for further temporary orders or modification or revocation of this Order.

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

PER SDCL § 25-4-33.1, BY ORDER OF THE COURT, YOU AND YOUR SPOUSE ARE:

- (1) Restrained from transferring, encumbering, concealing or in any way dissipating or disposing of any marital assets, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court, except as may be necessary in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life. You are to notify the other party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures and to account to the court for all extraordinary expenditures made after the Temporary Restraining Order is in effect;

- (2) Restrained from molesting or disturbing the peace of the other party;
- (3) Restrained from removing any minor child of the parties from the state without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court; and
- (4) Restrained from making any changes to any insurance coverage for the parties or any child of the parties without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court unless the change under the applicable insurance coverage increases the benefits, adds additional property, persons, or perils to be covered, or is required by the insurer.

INITIAL CUSTODY ORDER

Pursuant to SDCL § 25-4A-11 et seq., upon service of this Summons, the attached South Dakota Parenting Guidelines (Form UJS-302) become an Order of this Court. Except as provided in SDCL § 33-6-10, any minor children of this marriage shall remain in the custody of the parent who has been the primary caregiver for the minor children for the majority of time in the twelve months preceding the filing of the Summons and Complaint with Minor Children, unless the parties otherwise agree. The guidelines are subject to any provision established by a South Dakota state court in the following: a temporary or permanent domestic protection order, an order arising out of an abuse or neglect proceeding, a bond condition arising out of a criminal case, and an order in any other proceeding affecting child custody or support. SDCL § 25-4A-14.

The attached guidelines apply and shall continue in effect unless the parties agree or the Court otherwise orders. Imposition of these standard guidelines creates no presumption as to who may be awarded custody at any hearing. Per SDCL § 25-4A-12, any agreement by the parties for visitation other than the standard guidelines must be in writing, signed by both parties, and filed with the Court. The agreed plan shall be approved by court order and replace the standard guidelines or any plan previously filed.

Per SDCL § 25-4A-13, if either party objects to the implementation of the South Dakota Parenting Guidelines (Form UJS-302) as the initial custody arrangement, the objecting party shall file an objection with the Clerk of Court. The Court shall order a hearing which shall be held not later than thirty days after the date of the objection. The Court shall then issue its temporary custody and visitation order after considering the best interest of the child(ren) consistent with the provisions of SDCL § 25-4-45.

These guidelines are required to be served with the Summons and Complaint in a divorce, paternity action, or any other custody action or proceeding.

See SD UJS Family Law Self Help under divorce or paternity actions for instructions on how to initiate an action (service of summons).

Parental Agreements Encouraged:

Parents are both allowed and encouraged to work together and create a parenting plan for their child(ren) after giving meaningful consideration of the needs and abilities of the child(ren) and parents involved in their specific situation. These guidelines are intended to provide guidance regarding the minimum parenting time children should have with parents in order to ensure meaningful contact and allow for the parent/child relationship. Parents should agree to parenting time they find reasonable and in the best interests of their children. These Parenting Guidelines are intended to provide guidance and fill in the gaps when parents are unable to reach an agreement and are not intended to prevent agreements.

If the parents are unable to agree on a parenting plan, these Guidelines become a mandatory initial parenting plan and are enforceable as a court order upon commencement of a divorce or court action involving custody. SDCL 25-4A-11. This is a court order that will remain in place until further order of the court or until the parents agree otherwise.

Objection:

If either parent disagrees with the use of these guidelines as the initial parenting time plan, that parent has a right to object. A written objection shall be filed with the clerk. A form for the objection (form 372) can be found here: https://ujs.sd.gov/media/od3jgnnd/ujs-372-objection-to-order-implementing-guidelines-9_2022.pdf Upon filing of the objection, a hearing will be scheduled within 30 days. Following the hearing, the court will issue an order for temporary custody. To assist the Court in formulating an interim order, parents should be prepared to concisely convey the degree of each parent's participation in the child's life and provide information regarding the provisions set forth in SDCL 25-4-45.

When constructing an interim parenting time schedule the Court will work to maximize the time each parent has with the child consistent with each parent's demonstrated participation in the child's life and ensuring the child's welfare. When constructing a parenting plan, the Court may consider these guidelines, as guidance regarding the minimum exposure recommended for children with parents in order to ensure meaningful contact and allow for the maintenance of the parent/child relationship. SDCL 25-4A-13.

Instructions and forms regarding enforcement can be found at:

<https://ujs.sd.gov/self-help/family-law-help/shared-parenting-guidelines-plans/>

Guideline 1. For Parents Who Have Children Under Age 5.

1.1. Children Under Age 5 Generally.

- Newborns (birth to 3 months) and infants (3 – 6 months) have a great need for continuous contact with their primary caregiver, but also frequent contact with both parents who provide a sense of security, nurturing, and predictability.
- Overnights with very young children can establish and maintain meaningful bonds between the child and both parents and should occur when both parents can provide nurturing and routine within a stable environment. The schedule should be adjusted as needed to support the child's comfort and development.
- Older children are able to tolerate more and longer separations from one parent or the other.

The following Guidelines for children under age 5 are designed to take into account childhood developmental milestones. Since children mature at different rates, these may need to be adjusted to fit the children's individual circumstances.

1.2. Birth until 3 Months.

- (3) Children spend time in alternate homes, but with significantly more time in one parent's home with 1-2 overnights spaced regularly throughout the week. This arrangement requires adaptable children; or
- (4) In situations where both parents have been engaged in an ongoing caregiving routine with the children, overnights are allowed to continue as much as possible to provide the same caregiving arrangement to the children and maintain stability for the children.

1.6. 3 Years – 5 Years.

Recognizing the amount of time each parent spent with the children prior to the parents' separation and/or since that time, alternative parenting times are recommended:

- (1) One overnight parenting time period not to exceed 24 hours and two additional 8-hour parenting time periods each week, separate from the overnight, with the children returning to the other parent's home at least 1 hour before bedtime; or
- (2) Two to three overnights at one home, spaced throughout the week, the remaining time at the other parent's home. This arrangement requires adaptable children; or
- (3) In situations where both parents have been engaged in an ongoing caregiving routine with the children, overnights are allowed to continue as much as possible to provide the same caregiving arrangement to the children and maintain stability for the children.

If the parents cannot agree on which provision applies in sections 1.2 through 1.6, the parties shall use option 1 until further order of the court. Absent special circumstances as determined by the court, parenting time shall not decrease from one age category to the next.

1.7. Children in Day Care.

In families where children are in day care before and/or after parental separation, the children may be able to tolerate more time with each parent earlier than their specific age group indicates above because the children are accustomed to separations from both parents.

1.8. Breastfeeding Children.

Parents must be sensitive to the special needs of breastfeeding children. Children's basic sleeping, feeding, and waking cycles should be maintained to limit disruption in the children's routine. Forcibly changing these routines due to the upheaval of parental disagreement is detrimental to the physical health and emotional well-being of the children. On the other hand, it is important that the children be able to bond with both parents.

- a. For children being exclusively breastfed, the nursing child can still have frequent parenting time with the other parent. The amount of time will be guided by infant's feeding schedule, progressing to more time as the child grows older. Both parents should be mindful that a feeding may occur, and the child may return to time with the other parent after the feeding.
- b. Where both parents have been engaged in an ongoing caregiving routine with a nursing child, the same caregiving arrangement should be continued as much as possible to maintain stability for the children.
- c. If the other parent has been caring for the children overnight or for 24-hour periods while the nursing mother sleeps or works, that arrangement shall continue.
- d. A mother may not use breastfeeding to deprive the other parent of time with the children. If, for example, a nursing mother uses day care or a babysitter for the children, the same accommodations (i.e., bottle feeding with breast milk or formula, or increased time between breast feeding sessions) used with the day care provider or babysitter will be used with the other parent, if the other parent is capable of personally providing the same caregiving.

1.9. Holidays.

For children aged 0-5 years, when the parents live and/or celebrate the holiday in the same or a nearby community, the parents shall alternate the following holidays in the chart below. Prior to a child's 5th birthday, holiday parenting time shall not exceed the longest period of parenting time currently being exercised and shall be scheduled by the parent exercising holiday time. If the parents cannot otherwise agree, the holiday time shall be exercised within the time frames provided in the chart below not to exceed the longest period of parenting time currently being exercised. It is recommended that the parents communicate two weeks in advance about who is exercising what time period for the holidays set forth below. Parenting time, however, shall not be withheld solely for failure to abide by this two-week recommendation.

1.10. Vacation With Children 3 – 5 Years Old.

Upon 30 days advance written notice (by mail, email or text message), each parent is entitled to two separate periods of uninterrupted time for up to 5 days each with their children each year, not to conflict with the other parent's holiday parenting time. Parents are encouraged to coordinate vacation plans. The parents shall consider extending the 5-day time periods to 7 days if the children are adaptable and accustomed to spending time with both parents. In the event there is a dispute, the mother gets priority in choosing her vacation periods first in even-numbered years and the father gets priority in choosing his vacation periods first in odd-numbered years.

1.11. Long-Distance Parenting.

When substantial distance between the parents exists, the ability to exercise these Guidelines is compromised. The parents will need to create a developmentally appropriate parenting plan for their unique situation. When parenting time is unable to be frequent, parents are encouraged to use video/audio contact to build and/or maintain the bond between the children and parent who lives afar.

Guideline 2. For Parents Who Have Children Age 5 and Older And Reside Less Than 200 Miles Apart.

2.1. Weekends.

In most cases, it is a positive experience for the children to have both parents involved in taking the children to and from school. Parenting time shall consist of alternate weekends starting upon the release of school for the week, and continuing until the return to school following week. Parenting time shall be an equivalent period of time if a parent is unavailable on weekends and the children do not miss school. Holiday time takes precedence over weekends.

2.2. Mid-Week.

If time and distance allow, parenting time shall include one mid-week overnight every week, in addition to the weekends in 2.1 above, with the children. If the parents cannot otherwise agree, this mid-week time shall be on Wednesdays and shall start when the children are released from school or at 3:15 p.m. if no school is in session, and concludes when the children are returned to school the next day or at 8:00 a.m. All transportation for the midweek parenting time is the responsibility of the parent exercising the parenting time.

2.3. Summer Break.

The children shall be with each parent for one-half of the school summer break. Summer break begins the day after school is released and ends the day before school commences. The parent with whom the children reside the majority of the time during the school year has priority to have the children the week before school resumes, which counts as part of that parent's summer break. At the option of the other parent, his/her parenting time during summer break may be consecutive or it may be split into 2 or more blocks of time. This parent shall provide a minimum of 30 days advance notice of the dates selected.

If the children go to summer school and it is impossible for a parent to schedule time other than during summer school, the parent may elect to take the time when the children are in summer school and transport the children to the summer school sessions at the children's school or an equivalent summer school session in that parent's community.

The parent with whom the children reside for the majority of the school year shall have the weekend before the beginning and the weekend after the end of the other parent's summer period, regardless of whose weekend it may be. This weekend time will not be made up.

During any summer vacation parenting times of three or more consecutive weeks, the parent exercising parenting time shall arrange for a mutually convenient 48-hour continuous period of time for the other parent to spend with the children.

2.4. Holidays.

The following chart shows the allocation of the holidays between parents. School breaks and release times may be different from school to school and district to district. The school calendar is published on your children's school's website before each school year starts. It is important to know these dates / times as they pertain to your children.

2.5. Conflicts Between Regular and Holiday Weekends.

When there is a conflict between a holiday weekend and the regularly scheduled weekend time, the holiday takes precedence. Unless mutually agreed in writing, there will be no makeup parenting time in conflicts between holiday weekend and the regularly scheduled weekend time. This may result in one parent having the children for three weekends in a row; however, neither parent shall have the children for more than 3 weekends in a row.

2.6. Parent's Vacation with Children Age 5 and Older.

Each parent is entitled to a vacation with the children totaling up to 14 days, with 7 days being the most that may be exercised at one time. When possible, each parent shall provide the other with 30 days advance notice of their intent to utilize their vacation time. Parents are encouraged to coordinate vacation plans. In the event there is a dispute, the mother gets priority in choosing her vacation periods first in even-numbered years and the father gets priority in choosing his vacation periods first in odd-numbered years.

2.7. Precedence.

The allocation of holidays listed in the above chart shall take precedence over vacations. In other words, a parent cannot exercise their vacation with the children when it is the other parent's holiday. But vacations shall take precedence over the regular parenting time schedule.

2.8. Notice of Canceled Time With the Children.

Whenever possible, each parent shall give a minimum of three days' notice of intent not to exercise all or part of the scheduled time with the children. When such notice is not reasonably possible, the maximum notice permitted by the circumstances, and the explanation, shall be provided to the other parent.

2.9. Pick Up and Return of Children.

When the parents live in the same area/community, the responsibility for picking up and returning the children shall be shared. The parent who receives the children for his/her parenting time will pick the children up from the other parent. Both parents have an obligation to be punctual and to arrive at the agreed upon time, not substantially earlier or later. Repeated, unjustified violations of this provision may subject the offender to court sanctions.

Guideline 3. For Parents Who Have Children Age 5 and Older and Reside More Than 200 Miles Apart.

3.1. Holidays.

Parents who reside more than 200 miles apart shall exercise the following holidays as follows:

Holiday	Details	Even-Numbered Years	Odd-Numbered Years
Easter weekend	Starts when school is released for the week and ends when the children are returned to school the following week.	Parent 2	Parent 1
Spring Break, if one is designated separately from Easter	Starts when school is released for the week and ends when the children are returned to school the following week. If a spring break is not granted by the school, this provision would not apply. Also, if the spring break is combined with Easter, this provision would not apply.	Parent 1	Parent 2

Thanksgiving	Starts when school is released for the week and ends when the children are returned to school the following week.	Parent 2	Parent 1
Winter Break	The winter break starts the day the children are released from school for the break and continues to the morning of the day the children return to school.	Parent 1	Parent 2

3.2. Summer Break.

The parent with whom the children do not reside during the school year shall have the children for the children's summer break as follows: summer break begins 3 days after school is released and ends 7 days before school recommences. This allows 10 days of parenting time during the summer with the parent with whom the children reside during the school year. Additionally, the parent with whom the children reside during the school year shall be entitled to exercise a 48-hour period of parenting time with the children every three weeks during the summer break to be exercised at the sole expense of the parent with whom the children reside during the school year.

3.3. Priority of Summer Time With Parent.

Parenting time in the summer with the parent who lives more than 200 miles away takes precedence over summer activities (such as sports) when the parent's time cannot be reasonably scheduled around such events. Even so, the conscientious parent will often be able to enroll the children in a similar activity in the parent's community. When each child reaches an age and maturity where activities are very important to them, the parents should reach an agreement that works best for the child.

3.4. Notice.

At least 60 days' notice (recommended to be by mail, email, or text message) shall be given by the parent who lives more than 200 miles away from the children of the date for commencing extended summer parenting time with the children so that the most efficient means of transportation may be obtained and the parents and the children may arrange their schedules. Failure to give the precise number of days' notice does not entitle the parent with primary residence of the children the right to deny the other parent parenting time with the children.

3.5. Additional Time With the Parent Who Lives More Than 200 Miles Away.

The parent who resides more than 200 miles away from the children shall have the following parenting time:

- o If the parent who lives more than 200 miles away wants to travel, at his/her sole expense, to visit with his/her children, this parenting time shall be accommodated for a reasonable time period of no less than 48 hours. However, this is not intended to be exercised more than every other weekend;

- o Where distance and finances permit, additional parenting time for the parent residing more than 200 miles away from the children, such as holiday weekends or special events, is encouraged. Parents are encouraged to reference the holiday schedules set forth in Section 2.4 when determining the allocation and duration of other holidays; and
- o When the parent who lives 200 miles away is in the area where the children reside, or the children are in the area where this parent resides, liberal time with the children based on the circumstances must be allowed. Circumstances will vary and may only allow for a quick visit or may allow for overnight parenting time.

The children may miss some school to spend time with the parent who lives 200 miles away, so long as it does not substantially impair the children's academic progress. However, additional time with the parent who lives more than 200 miles away from the child shall not interfere with the alternating holiday schedule set forth in Section 3.1 herein.

Parents are encouraged to communicate with each other and cooperate in creating additional parenting times for the children. If the additional parenting time exceeds 4 hours, the parent who lives more than 200 miles away shall provide as much advance notice as possible, preferably 30 days. Failure to provide notice shall not be the sole reason for denial of additional parenting time.

Guideline 4. General Rules Applicable to All Parents.

4.1. Rules of Conduct.

A parent shall always avoid speaking negatively about the other parent and must firmly discourage such conduct by relatives or friends. Each parent should speak in positive terms about the other parent in the presence of the children. Each parent shall encourage the children to respect the other parent. Children should never be used by one parent to spy or report on the other parent.

4.2. Relatives.

Children will usually benefit from continued contact with all relatives on both sides of the family. Such relationships should be protected and encouraged. But relatives, like parents, need to avoid being critical of either parent in front of the children. Parents should have their children maintain ties with both the maternal and paternal relatives. Usually the children will visit the paternal relatives during times when the children are with their father and the maternal relatives during times when they are with their mother. This may include allowing the children to spend time with these relatives even when the parent is not present.

4.3. Relocation.

Relocation is governed by South Dakota state law and permission from the court may be required. See SDCL 25-4A-17. Instructions and forms on how to comply with the requirements surrounding relocation: <https://ujs.sd.gov/self-help/family-law-help/relocate-with-minor-child/>

4.4. Communication between Parents.

Parents must always keep each other advised of their home and work addresses and telephone numbers. Whenever possible and unless otherwise stated herein, all communication concerning the children must be conducted directly between the parents (i.e., in person, by telephone, email, text message, communication notebook, a designated third party or co-parenting tool). Absent an emergency, communication should not occur at a parent's place of employment.

4.5. School and Medical Information.

Both parents shall keep the other parent informed with the name, address and telephone number of the school where each of their children attends and each parent is authorized to communicate concerning the children directly with the school and with the children's doctors and other professionals, outside the presence of the other parent. Each parent has an obligation to contact the school to ensure receipt of class schedules, school report cards, notices, etc. so that they can remain involved with their children's education. Both parents shall be listed as a parent and emergency contact on all of the children's records, forms, registrations, etc. Attendance at academic or disciplinary meetings pertaining to the minor children shall be limited to the parents and the respective school professional(s). Others may not attend such meetings without advance mutual parental agreement or court order.

Each parent shall immediately notify the other parent of any medical emergencies or serious illnesses of the children. Access to records and information pertaining to minor children, including, but not limited to, medical, dental, therapy, counseling, orthodontia and similar health care and school records must be made equally available to both parents. The parents must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the name and address of the other parent is listed on all such records. If children are taking medications, both parents shall have access to a sufficient amount for their parenting time as well as the instructions.

The parent who has medical insurance coverage on the children shall supply to the other parent an insurance card or copy thereof and, as applicable, insurance forms and a list of insurer-approved or HMO-qualified health care providers in the area where the other parent is residing. Except in emergencies, the parent taking the children to a doctor, dentist, or other provider not so approved or qualified may be required to pay the additional cost for that provider. However, when there is a change in insurance, which requires a change in medical care providers and a child has a chronic illness, thoughtful consideration shall be given by the parents to what is more important, i.e., allowing the child to remain with the original provider or the economic consequences of changing carriers. When there is an obligation to pay medical expenses, the parent responsible for paying shall be promptly furnished with the bill, and where applicable, the explanation of benefits, by the other parent. The parents shall cooperate in submitting bills to the appropriate insurance carrier. Thereafter, the parent responsible for paying the balance of the bill shall make arrangements unless previously paid by the other parent. Insurance refunds shall be promptly turned over to the parent who paid the bill for which the refund was received.

4.6. Extracurricular Activities.

Both parents shall consult the other parent prior to enrolling the children in any event that may affect the other parent's parenting time. Both parents shall be listed as a parent and emergency contact on all of the children's records, forms, registrations, etc. Both parents shall be provided access to the name of the coach, director, and organization providing the activity for each child along with their contact information. Both parents shall have the obligation to contact the activity director to ensure receipt of information such as practice schedules, games, parental participation, etc.

4.7. Clothing.

In situations where the children reside primarily with one parent, that parent shall send an appropriate supply of children's clothing with the children for the other parent's parenting time. At the conclusion of his/her parenting time, this clothing shall be returned clean (when reasonably possible). Parents must advise, as far in advance as possible, of any special activities so that appropriate clothing for the children may be sent. It is recommended that both parents have some basic clothing available in their home to ensure that all of the children's basic needs are met.

4.8. Withholding Support or Time with the Children.

Neither time with the children nor child support is to be withheld because of either parent's failure to comply with a court order. Only the court may enter sanctions for non-compliance. Children generally have a right both to support and, time with both parents, neither of which is dependent upon the other. In other words, if the parent ordered to pay child support fails to do so, he/she is still entitled to their parenting time. Likewise, if one parent denies the other parent parenting time, child support payments must still be made.

Forms and instructions on how to enforce your parenting time can be found on the South Dakota Legal Self-Help Center at:
<https://ujs.sd.gov/self-help/family-law-help/shared-parenting-guidelines-plans/%23timeorders>

4.9. Adjustments in Parenting Plan.

Parents are expected to fairly modify the parenting plan as family necessities, illnesses, weather, or commitments reasonably so require. The parents must work together in good faith to get any missed parenting time rescheduled to occur within a reasonable period of time, usually within 30 days. When possible, each parent must timely advise the other when scheduled parenting time with the children cannot be exercised.

4.10. Children of Different Ages.

It usually makes sense for all the children to share the same schedule of parenting time. Having brothers or sisters along can be an important support for children. Because it is intended that parenting time with the children be a shared experience between siblings and, unless these Guidelines or a court order provides otherwise, all the children shall enjoy parenting time together. Parents shall consider the children's best interests when scheduling parenting time especially for newborns and infants who may have developmental needs that may prevent them from immediately experiencing the same schedule as their older siblings. Additionally, older teenagers' special needs for peer involvement and for some control of their own lives may place them on different schedules from their younger brothers and sisters.

4.11. Communication with Children.

Unless prohibited by a court order, either parent may mail, call, text, email, FaceTime or skype (or use similar technology) to communicate with the children at reasonable times and with reasonable frequency during those periods the children are with the other parent. The children may, of course, mail, call, text, email, FaceTime or skype (or use similar technology) to communicate with either parent, at reasonable hours or with reasonable frequency.

- Parents are cautioned that communication between the parent and the children should not be so excessive as to interfere with the other parent's time, nor used to undermine the other parent's authority.
- During long vacations, the parent with whom the children are on vacation is required to make the children available for telephone calls with the other parent at least every three days.
- At all other times, the parent the children are with must not refuse to answer the other parents telephone calls or turn off their telephone in order to deny the other parent telephone contact.
- If a parent uses an answering machine or cell phone voicemail, messages left should be returned to that person as soon as possible.
- Parents should agree on a specified time for calls to the children so that the children will be made available no less than three days a week.
- Either parent may provide the children with a cell phone subject to each parent's ability to set restrictions in their home. A parent shall not prohibit contact between the children and the other parent; nor shall they impede the children's ability to contact the other parent during reasonable times and at a reasonable frequency.
- Communication between a parent and the children must not be censored, recorded, or monitored, absent a court order.
- Each parent shall have an unrestricted right to send cards, letters and/or packages to their children. The children shall also have the same right to receive and send items to their parents.

4.12. Social Media.

Each parent shall have full access to monitor the social media accounts of the children, but neither shall open or read communications between the children and the other parent.

4.13. Privacy of Residence.

A parent shall not enter the residence of the other parent except by express invitation, regardless of whether a parent retains a property interest in the residence. Unless otherwise indicated herein, the children shall be picked up and returned to the front entrance of the other parent's residence. The parent dropping off the children shall not leave until the children are safely inside the other parent's residence. Parents must refrain from surprise visits to the other parent's home.

4.14. Refusal / Hesitation by Children.

Parents should always encourage the children to attend parenting time with the other parent absent circumstances outlined in the "Scope of Application" provision on page 3. Parents shall not deny parenting time with the other parent solely based on the refusal of the children.

4.15. Special Considerations for Adolescents.

While children never get to choose where they live, the parents should honestly and fairly consider their teenager's wishes regarding time with a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to influence their teenager's wishes on parenting time. Teenagers should explain the reason for their wishes directly to the affected parent, without intervention by the other parent.

4.16. Daycare Providers.

When parents reside in the same community, they should use the same day care provider. To the extent feasible, the parents should rely on each other to care for the children when the other parent is unavailable.

4.17. Parents in the Armed Services.

When one or both parents are serving in the military, it is important to create a parenting time schedule that focuses on sharing the children when the parents live close to each other and allowing for temporary duty assignment (TDY) possibilities. Military families should also consider what parenting time would look like if TDY's or overseas commitments were engaged requiring one parent to live more than 200 miles from the children. The residential parent shall support the children's relationship with the other parent by having a consistent plan of communication with the military parent.

Definitions.

Any custody proceeding involving children is going to involve a determination of both legal and physical custody.

“Legal Custody” refers to the legal authority to make major decisions for your children. There are 2 options when it comes to legal custody:

Joint Legal Custody – “[B]oth parents retain full parental rights and responsibilities with respect to their child[ren] and so that both parents must confer on, and participate in, major decisions affecting the welfare of the child[ren].” See SDCL 25-5-7.1.

Sole Legal Custody – one parent shall have the right and responsibility to make the decisions related to health, education and welfare of the children.

“Physical Custody” refers to how parenting time is divided between 2 parties. Parents may agree on the amount of time the children spend with each parent. If parents do not agree, the parenting time schedule set forth herein shall remain in place until a court orders otherwise.

Shared Parenting.

These Guidelines do not address shared parenting, which is defined as “a detailed shared parenting plan which provides that the children will reside no less than 180 nights per calendar year in each parent’s home and that the parents will share the duties and responsibilities of parenting the children and the expenses of the children in proportion to their incomes[.]” SDCL 25-7-6.27. If you are interested in this arrangement, you are strongly encouraged to consult with an attorney of your choosing. More information and sample schedules can be found under Shared Parenting Plans at: <https://uj.s.sd.gov/self-help/family-law-help/shared-parenting-guidelines-plans/>

Scope of Application.

General. These Guidelines are applicable to all custody situations, including divorces with minor children, paternity actions and cases involving joint legal custody where one parent has primary physical custody. These Guidelines are not applicable to situations where the court reasonably believes the children’s physical health or safety is in danger or the children’s emotional development could be significantly impaired. These situations may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Family Violence (physical, verbal or otherwise);
- Substance Abuse;

- Mental Illness of Parent or Child;
- Risk of Flight with Children;
- Long Interruption of Contact Between Parent and Children;
- A Parent's New Relationship;
- Religious & Cultural Holidays; or
- An Incarcerated Parent.

In such cases one or both parents may have legal, psychological, substance abuse or emotional problems that may need to be addressed before these Guidelines can be used. The type of help that is needed in such cases is beyond the scope of these Guidelines.

A parent who believes one or more of the above situations exists should file an Objection to the Implementation of the South Dakota Parenting Guidelines (UJS Form 372). This form can be found at https://uj.s.sd.gov/media/od3jgnnd/uj.s-372-objection-to-order-implementing-guidelines-9_2022.pdf. The opposing parent should also file a response to this Objection and should appear at the hearing.

Existing Parenting Time Orders. Existing parenting time orders on the date of adoption of these revised Guidelines shall be enforced according to the parenting time guidelines that were in effect on the date the parenting time order was issued. Changes to the South Dakota Parenting Time Guidelines do not alone constitute good cause for modifying an existing parenting time order; however, a court or parties to a proceeding may refer to these Guidelines in requesting changes to their parenting time order after the effective date of the Guidelines.

Protection Orders. If a protection order has been established regarding the minor children, that order would prevail over these Guidelines, until a court specifically orders otherwise. If an active protection order prohibits contact between the parents or between one parent and the children, parents are cautioned that the parent who is the subject of the protection order will violate the order if he/she has contact with the other parent and makes agreements as suggested in these Guidelines without permission for contact from the court that issued the protection order.

Additional Resources

There are several resources available to parents who need help in creating, enforcing or improving their parenting plan. Visit <https://uj.s.sd.gov/programs-services/> for additional information on mediators, parenting coordinators, co-parenting tools and counseling options.

Mediation is another opportunity for parents to meet and confer regarding parenting plans with the assistance with a professional. Mediation can be voluntary or court ordered. Approved court appointed mediators can be found at <https://uj.s.sd.gov/programs-services/> under Mediators.

Additional tips that parents should consider in order to keep the children the focus of the parenting time arrangements can be found in Appendix A.

Tips to Stay Focused on the Children

A powerful cause of stress, suffering, and maladjustment in children of divorce or separation is not simply the divorce or separation itself, but rather continuing conflict between their parents before, during and after the divorce and/or separation. To minimize harm to the children, parents must agree on some basic rules to keep the children the focus of their parenting time arrangement.

Parents need to keep in mind that it is generally accepted that in most cases of divorce or separation:

1. Children of separated parents do best in both the short-term and the long-run when they feel loved and cared for by both parents;
2. Children generally do better when both parents have stable and meaningful involvement in their children's lives;
3. The strength of a parent's relationship to a child is affected more by parental commitment, warmth and the ability to meet the child's needs than it is by time spent with the child (i.e. quality vs. quantity);
4. Each parent has different and valuable contributions to make to their children's development;
5. Children should have structured routine time (such as bedtime and doing homework) with each parent, as well as unstructured time (such as playing in the park);
6. Parents should help their children maintain positive existing relationships, routines and activities;
7. Children may find security in personal possessions, like a favorite stuffed animal or blanket. Children should be permitted to bring personal possessions back and forth between homes, regardless of which parent purchased them; and
8. Parenting plans may need to be adjusted over time as the needs and circumstances of parents and children change.

Children are harmed by exposure to conflict between their parents. High conflict between parents increases children's anxiety and negatively impacts healthy child development. The following are guidelines to help you navigate your role in co-parenting your children:

1. Children shall not be put in a position to "choose" between the parents. Children must not be made to feel guilty about having a good time with the other parent;
2. Each parent should strive to show respect for the other parent;
3. Each parent must support the child's relationship with the other parent and encourage them to enjoy themselves with the other parent;

4. Children shall not be expected to communicate messages between parents, regarding parenting time, financial matters or issues about which parents disagree;
5. Parents should exchange the children in a respectful manner;
6. A parent should consider allowing their children to attend important family celebrations and events with both sides of their family, even when the events occur on the other parent's parenting time;
7. Differences between the parent's homes may occur (i.e. daily routines, activities, and diet). Parents should remember these are merely "differences" and are not necessarily a "better" or "worse" practice;
8. Children need consistency in both homes (i.e. bed times, meal times, medications etc.);
9. If one parent has been significantly more involved with the care of the child before separation, that parent may need to help the other parent gain the skills and knowledge to care appropriately for the child and support the development of a positive relationship between the child and the other parent, unless there are legitimate concerns about the other parent's capacity to care for their child. Both parents will need to approach this transition in a cooperative manner.

Parenting plans made for infants and young children may need to change as children get older and start to attend school. Parenting plans designed to accommodate a parent's employment may need to be modified if parents change their employment or work schedule. It is important for parents to communicate effectively, discuss changes that they observe in their children with one another and be prepared to modify the plans consistent with the best interests of the children.

Each family needs to consider the age, temperament, previous caretaking arrangements and the child's relationship with each parent, as well as whether the child has special needs. It is important that parents are able to communicate about their children on a regular basis, whether that communication is written or verbal. Parents shall share information so that a child's experience, as he/she transitions between parents, is as smooth as possible.

3. Custody & Visitation. The parties are the parents of the following minor child(ren) born to or adopted by them during their relationship/marriage:

Name of Child	Date of Birth	Date of Adoption

A. Legal & Physical Custody: The parties agree that as to custody of the minor child(ren) (check one):

- ☐ The parties share joint legal custody of the minor child(ren) with _____ having primary physical custody;
- ☐ The parties share joint legal and joint physical custody of the minor child(ren);
- ☐ _____ has sole legal and physical custody of the minor child(ren);

The parents further agree to share the duties and responsibilities of parenting the child(ren) and shall divide the expenses of the child(ren) in proportion to their incomes, i.e. Plaintiff paying _____% and Defendant paying _____%.

B. Parenting Time Schedules: The parties agree to the following parenting time schedules with the minor child(ren):

During the school week, including pick-up and return times and location, the Plaintiff shall have the minor child(ren): _____

During the school week, including pick-up and return times and location, the Defendant shall have the minor child(ren): _____

During the summer, including pick-up and return times and location, the Plaintiff shall have the minor child(ren): _____

During the summer, including pick-up and return times and location, the Defendant shall have the minor child(ren): _____

- C. Holidays: In addition to the custodial arrangement designated above, and unless the parties otherwise agreed, major holidays shall be alternated as set forth in the South Dakota Parenting Guidelines (Form UJS-302). When there is a conflict between a holiday and the regular parenting schedule, the holiday takes precedence. Therefore, if the Defendant misses a regular weekend because it is Plaintiff's holiday, the regular parenting time schedule will resume following the holiday. If the Defendant receives two consecutive weekends because of a holiday, the regular alternating weekend schedule will resume the following weekend with the Plaintiff. Unless mutually agreed, there will be no makeup parenting time after any conflicts between the holiday weekend and the regularly scheduled weekend time. Parenting time "missed" during the summer period is not made up.

Plaintiff Initials

Defendant Initials

The parties agree to arrange transportation for the child(ren) for holiday visits as follows:

The parties may, by mutual agreement, alter the parenting time schedule above which shall be in writing and signed by both parties. Text messages and emails are sufficient in amending this agreement as long as the text messages and emails are retained.

- D. Failure to comply: Neither parenting time nor child support is to be withheld because of either parent's failure to comply with a court order. Only the court may enter sanctions for non-compliance. Children have a right to both support and parenting time, neither of which is dependent upon the other. In other words, if you do not receive child support, you still have to allow parenting time and if you are denied parenting time, you still have to pay child support. If there is a violation of either parenting time or a support order, the exclusive remedy is to apply to the court for appropriate sanctions.
- E. Telephone Calls: Telephone calls between parent and child shall be liberally permitted at reasonable hours and at the expense of the calling parent, if it is a long-distance call. The parent with whom the child is staying shall not refuse to answer the phone or turn off the phone in order to deny the other parent telephone contact. Messages or voice mails left for a child should be returned in a timely manner.
- F. Clothing: If one parent has primary physical custody, that parent shall send an appropriate supply of the child(ren)'s clothing with them during the other parent's parenting time, which shall be returned clean (when reasonably possible), with the child(ren). The parent exercising parenting time shall advise, as far in advance as possible, of any special activities so that the appropriate clothing belonging to the child(ren) may be sent.

Plaintiff Initials

Defendant Initials

If the parties are exercising shared parenting, it is expected that they will each maintain clothing at their individual homes for the child(ren). However, the parents agree to cooperate in returning clothing to the appropriate parent so each can maintain a supply of clothing.

- G. Transportation: Unless otherwise agreed to herein, the transportation between the parents shall be handled equally. When the parents live in the same community, the parent commencing their parenting time will pick up the child(ren) from the other parent's home and upon conclusion of the parenting time, the other parent shall retrieve the child(ren) from the home of the parent who just had parenting time. The parents have an obligation to be punctual, arriving at the agreed time, not substantially early or late. Repeated, unjustified violations of this provision may subject the offender to court sanctions.
- H. Parental Affection: Each of the parents shall take all measures deemed advisable to foster a feeling of affection between the minor child(ren) and the other parent and neither will do anything which may estrange the child(ren) from the other parent nor impair their high regard for the other parent. Both parties agree they will speak only favorably of the other while in the child(ren)'s presence. Each will promote and foster good parental relations between the child(ren) and the other parent and avoid any communication of any kind which would be detrimental to the child(ren)'s respect or admiration for the other parent.
- I. Grade Reports and Medical Information: If the parties share joint legal custody, each parent shall provide the other parent with grade reports and notices from school as they are received and shall authorize the other parent to communicate concerning the child(ren) directly with the daycare, the school, and the child(ren)'s doctors and other professionals outside the presence of the other parent. Unless there are abuse and neglect, criminal or protection orders to the contrary, both parents shall also be listed as the child(ren)'s parent and as an emergency contact with the daycare, the school, and all health professionals.
