

STATEMENT OF THE ISSUE

- 1. Did the arbitrator exceed his power and authority by awarding monetary damages prohibited by the underlying contract?

The Circuit Court determined that the arbitrator correctly construed or applied the underlying contract when formulating a decision and therefore, deferring to the decision, refused to vacate the arbitration award.