

PLAINTIFF'S CHECKLIST FOR DIVORCE WITHOUT MINOR CHILDREN

These forms are related to specific South Dakota Codified Laws (SDCL) concerning divorce matters. You can find these laws on the South Dakota Legislature website. If you have any legal questions, it is highly recommended that you consult with an attorney. Court staff are unable to provide legal advice or assist with form completion. For specific questions related to the forms, you can also contact the Legal Form Help Line at 1-855-784-0004 or email UJS staff at ujssrlhelp@ujss.state.sd.us.

Before You Begin

If you are the spouse initiating the divorce, you will be designated as the Plaintiff on all forms. Your spouse will be referred to as the Defendant. This form serves as a simple checklist outlining the steps for the Plaintiff in a divorce proceeding. Each form mentioned in this checklist will include detailed instructions.

If you have already received a Summons and Complaint, consult the Checklist for Divorce without Minor Children (Defendant's Checklist).

Divorce actions can only be filed in the county in which you or your spouse reside.

Remember that all original copies of any form must be filed with the Clerk of Court, who will provide you with file stamped copies. Before submitting anything to a Sheriff, process server, or opposing party, make sure to retain a copy for your own records.

Contested Divorce

A contested divorce arises when a couple cannot find common ground regarding the decisions necessary to terminate their marriage. In such cases, they proceed to court, where a Judge adjudicates the divorce-related matters. The forms contained in this packet do not cover contested divorces. This would be when the parties are encouraged to seek legal representation.

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

- This Affidavit establishes jurisdiction and grounds for divorce in which the Court may grant a divorce without requiring their personal appearance. Although this Affidavit can be used to help waive a court hearing, the Judge presiding over your case may still require one.
- In South Dakota, both parties typically must agree to use irreconcilable differences as the reason for divorce. Additionally, the Plaintiff must be a resident of the State of South Dakota when the divorce is started. This Affidavit confirms those facts for the Court.
- This form shall be completed once the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement has been signed by both parties.
