Fifth Judicial Circuit
Eighth Amended COVID-19 Procedure Order

The moratorium on jury trials, as outlined in the Fifth Judicial Circuit Administrative Order dated March 16, 2020, is extended through January 31, 2021, except as follows. Any judge may schedule and conduct a jury trial involving an in-custody criminal defendant if that judge concludes that the trial may be conducted in a manner consistent with the then-existing Centers for Disease Control guidelines related to the COVID-19 pandemic.
