SEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

CIV. 2020-

STANDING ORDER
REGARDING
COVID-19 COURTHOUSE
SAFETY MEASURES

It is hereby ordered that, effective immediately, persons, including the public, parties to litigation, defendants, and employees, shall not enter the Pennington County, those portions of the Fall River County or Custer County Courthouse in which court business is performed (courtrooms, clerks' offices or court service offices) if they fall into any of the categories below:

- 1) Persons who have traveled to or live with someone who has traveled to any of the following countries in the last 14 days: China, South Korea, any European Country, Iran, or any Country or US State as identified by the CDC as having widespread transmission or a Country that is the subject of travel restrictions,
- 2) Person who have been asked to self-quarantine by any doctor, medical provider, or health agency during the duration of the self-quarantine,
- 3) Persons who have been diagnosed with or have had contact with anyone diagnosed with COVID-19 until they have completed a quarantine period as directed by any doctor, medical provider, or health agency, see the South Dakota Department of Health website for more information;
- 4) Persons with a cough, fever over 100.4°F, or shortness of breath, and worsening cough.

Court Security Officers or other Court Personnel as directed may question any person entering the Courthouse to determine whether they fall into any of these categories. If a person falls into these categories, they may be denied further entry into the Courthouse.

Persons who fall into high risk categories such as those over the age of 60, those with underlying conditions including heart disease, lung disease, or diabetes, those who are pregnant, or have weakened immune systems are encouraged to request a reset of court dates or to use alternative methods for obtaining services at the Courthouse.

Anyone who is present in the Courthouse for a court appearance and falls into an above-listed category will be allowed to reschedule that Court appearance. Anyone who is present in the Courthouse for other purposes, will be provided information on how to access services and paperwork online or provided other information related to their purpose at the Courthouse. Please visit our website at https://ujc.sd.gov/Seventh_Circuit/Default.aspx for additional information.

If you fall into one of the above-listed categories and are represented by an attorney, please contact your attorney to reschedule your court date.
