IN CIRCUIT COURT
SEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

IN THE MATTER OF MISDEMEANOR WARRANTS (EXCEPTING
WARRANTS FOR DOMESTIC ABUSE,
STALKING, VIOLATIONS OF PROTECTION
ORDERS, AND VIOLATIONS OF NO
CONTACT ORDERS)

STANDING ORDER

Due to the current COVID-19 pandemic and the efforts being made to maintain social distancing in the Pennington County Jail, this Court hereby ORDERS that, for all individuals who currently have outstanding misdemeanor warrants in the Seventh Judicial Circuit for which a PR bond has not already been authorized (excepting warrants for Domestic Abuse, Stalking, Violations of Protection Orders and Violations of No Contact Orders), and who are being arrested and brought to the Pennington County Jail on a new unrelated charge for which a PR bond has been authorized, or for that misdemeanor warrant alone, bond is to be issued on the outstanding misdemeanor warrants as a PR bond. This Standing Order will remain in effect only during the time when the Pennington County Jail is reducing bookings and jail population due to the COVID-19 pandemic and social distancing expectations remain in place, or pending further ORDER of the Court.

Dated at Rapid City, Pennington County, South Dakota, this 25th day of March, 2020.
