Chief Justice Steven Jensen of the South Dakota Supreme Court has announced that the Supreme Court will hold its April 2022 Term of Court in the Surbeck Center at South Dakota Mines.

The Court will hear oral arguments April 26 and 27. Court will open at 9 a.m. In addition, each morning at 8:45 a representative from the court will provide a brief overview of the appellate process and what observers can expect to hear and see. Booklets containing a schedule of the cases to be heard and a short synopsis of each case, as well as biographical information on the Justices and a short summary of appellate procedure will be available for persons attending any of the Court's sessions or online at ujs.sd.gov.

Chief Justice Jensen extends a special invitation to the residents of Rapid City and area communities to attend any of the Court's sessions.
